Career Pathway: Transportation Safety Planning

Master's Degree Planning

With specialized research focused on safety data analysis and systems performance

+5 years specialized work experience with focus on transportation safety performance analysis, long range safety planning, public outreach, safety leadership, and collaboration-building

Salary: $70,956 - $91,827 (Glassdoor)

Bachelor's Degree Urban & Regional Planning

With coursework, research, or other specialized experience and/or training on safety-focused planning, design or analysis

+1-6 years work experience in transportation planning with a focus on safety performance.

Transportation Planner

- Transportation Planner (SOC 19-3099)
- Urban & Regional Planner (SOC 19-3051)

Salary: $71,490 - $79,370

Associate's Degree

With major coursework in CAD, design, GIS, engineering, statistics & mathematics

PROGRAM OF STUDY

POS ON-RAMP

+6-24 months work experience

CAREER OFF-RAMP

Planning Aide (SOC 19-4061)

Salary: $46,000

CAREER LADDER